DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/17/07 has been entered.

Response to Applicant's Arguments / Amendments

This Office Action is responsive to the claims submitted on 10/17/07. Claims 1-20 are pending. In light of the amendments filed, the former rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, the instant claims are rejected under new grounds of rejections and thus, claims 1-20 are rejected for the reasons of record.

Applicant's remarks filed towards the former rejection are now considered moot because of a new grounds of rejection taught herein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 and 9-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morton (US Patent No. 2,613,837).

Morton teaches a washing machine having a resiliently supported tub structure. The washing machine has a casing 10 (cabinet); door 14 (door); tub 22 (tub); drum 21 (drum); gasket 55 (gasket); portion 73 (lip); and components extending therefrom including bend 74, web 69, and baffle 71 (support member).

The three inverted U-shaped ribbed portions 56 from left to right of the gasket 55 read on Applicant's claims for the so-called 1st plane, bending portion, and 2nd plane, respectively. Morton's disclosure of baffle 71 reads on Applicant's claim for a support member comprising a reinforcement rib. Morton's disclosure of outwardly extending web 69 reads on Applicant's claim for a protrusion formed on an inner lateral side of the lip to be contacted with the tub.

As seen in Fig. 3, on the right-side of the illustration, baffle 71 is referenced twice at two different parts of the gasket, where the baffle 71 extends therefrom. It appears that a plurality of spaced apart ribs 71 are formed about the entire circumference of the basket. As seen in Figs. 1 and 3, ribs 71 are formed in direct communication/integral with the tub.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 / 103

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by, or in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morton.

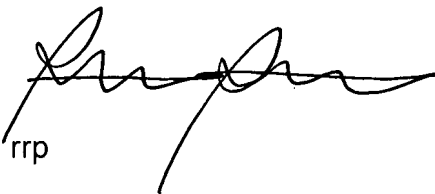

Arguably in Morton the outwardly extending web portion 69 is formed as a plurality of portions formed intermittently as indicated by the name 'web'. Although in the illustrations it is hard to clearly see how the web portion is formed about the circumference of the drum since a limited and virtually planar illustration is shown. However, on the other hand, even if Morton does not anticipate this feature by indication of a webbed portion, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have a plurality of webbed portions formed thereon a webbed gasket component to provide resilient hold using an effective, yet minimum amount of raw gasket materials.
